

Again, the old technology is attacking the new. XM radio is a great service and the NAB is appalled that it is doing so well. Who can blame consumers for wanting clear - commercial free - music. $10 a month for no advertising? How can you lose? Please understand it is the way of the future and that customers want 1 and 0, not amplitude and magnitude.